Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Perhaps the simplest way for me to respond to your letter is to tell you that we do not plan to publish a piece prepared by Dr. John Nichols at this time, or in the foreseeable future.

In the unlikely event this decision changes, we will, of course, review your rights in the matter. Thank you for taking the time to write to us. I'm sorry Dr. Nichols has caused you undue concern.

Sincerely,

Patricia Carbine
